

KIX EAP Education Policy and Innovation Conference: Call for Abstracts (Russian/English)

Deadline: 5 September 2021

KIX EAP Hub is pleased to announce a Call for Abstracts for the 1st KIX Education Policy and Innovation Conference (EPIC) to be held online from 10 AM to 12:15 PM Geneva time on the 7th, 14th and 21st October 2021.

The 1st KIX EPIC aims to bring together government officials, educational researchers, education practitioners, members of the donor community, civil society, and the private sector of both GPE KIX EAP countries and other countries in the EAP region to share their research results and knowledge on education policy and innovation.

We welcome submissions related to education policy studies or educational reform studies, notably on the following conference topics:

- COVID-19 response and digital learning
- Gender equality and social inclusion
- Teaching quality and learning assessment

Contributions from other areas of education research are also welcome.

Conference Format

On each day of the virtual conference, there will be a keynote speaker address in plenary. Afterwards, breakout groups will be formed for 90-minute panels (the individual presentations will be grouped into panels).

Notes for Presenters

Prospective presenters are encouraged to contribute to the conference through the submission of their research abstracts.

- Please submit an abstract (maximum 250 words) by filling out this form.
- The presenters are encouraged to indicate which of the three conference topics (see above) their presentation addresses.
- The conference languages are Russian and English. All abstracts need to be submitted and presented either in Russian or English.
- There are no fees for submission or participation in the conference.
- Duration of each presentation should be 20 minutes.
- KIX EAP will publish a booklet with all the abstracts as well as names and affiliations of the presenters.

- There is no expectation to produce a paper, but participants must produce a PowerPoint presentation (maximum 12 slides).

The abstract should have a clear and short title and include a summary of the proposed presentation (maximum 250 words). All other contributions will be evaluated with regard to the following criteria:

- Relevance: does the paper directly interrogate the conference priority topics and is it related to education policy/educational reform.
- Innovation: are there innovative thoughts, arguments, findings, methodologies, or ways of addressing the thematic priorities of the conference.
- Clarity and coherence of the research question and method, quality of the methodological design, quality of the data obtained and the analysis.
- Significance for educational practice, policy or theory.
