NSI 05 entitled “Domestic Financing: Tax and Education” aims to highlight global and national-level experiences and perspectives. It calls for greater attention to issues that influence national resource capacities for education and how that funding may be used. Questions of financing education are even more pressing as we face the consequences of COVID-19 and the impact of lockdowns globally. This pandemic is radically changing school attendance and learning, as well as the amount of education spending available from a diminished tax base.

In keeping with our core principles of accessibility and inclusiveness, NORRAG publishes Regional Editions of NORRAG Special Issues in Arabic, English, French, Russian, Simplified Chinese characters and Spanish. On March 25, in cooperation with NSI Regional Editors, we are organising the global launch of the Regional Editions of NORRAG Special Issue 05: Domestic Financing: Tax and Education.

The NSI series aims to further decentralize NORRAG’s knowledge production by promoting and engaging NORRAG members from the South. Responding to the thirst for knowledge in multiple languages and the need to contextualise NSIs, NORRAG works in partnerships with institutions in the Global South and East to contextualise, translate and disseminate NSI.

Our new initiative #ScholarsFromTheSouthAlsoKnow will also be launched at the event.
